As we give our offerings and gifts, we will enjoy an offertory by Lowell Bassett.

Evening Message Dr. Marty Michelson

Marty Alan Michelson maintains an active academic and advocacy profile engaging: Peacemaking, Human Personhood, Biblical Interpretation, Religious and Church Identity, Jewish History, Global Stewardship, Public Policy, and Political Advocacy. In that, he has been involved with many colleges and universities around the world and also is involved in on-line education.

Marty speaks to civic and faith based groups and engages politicians & humanitarian agencies on issues of peacemaking. As a scholar and as a person, Marty is committed to research that engages real human persons, effecting positive social change for the good of the world. Marty is Founder and Director of the Eupan Global Initiative (www.eupan.net) working to advance "the good for the all."

Marty is the author of many articles and books including: Reconciling Violence and Kingship and The Greatest commandment: The LORD's Invitation to Love. Marty's wife, Robyn, contributes to his life in myriad ways and they keep up with three active late teenage children.

It is so good to have our Interim Senior Pastor, Dr. Jim Bond, with us now. May we all pray for Pastor Bond as he leads us.

A DVD of the June 4th Ken and Judy Tippitt Farewell Music Celebration is now available beginning today at the reception desk for $10 each. Thanks to Ray Frank for producing the DVDs so that we have a wonderful remembrance of that evening.
