We welcome Rev. Vic Caldwell to the pulpit tonight. Vic is currently a chaplain with Marketplace Chaplains, USA, serving on a part-time basis. His pastorates have been in the southeastern states and, since 1977, in the Pacific Northwest. Vic attended Asbury College, and was graduated from Azusa College (APU) with the B.A. in Biblical Literature & Theology in 1965. He has also done graduate study at Wesley Biblical Seminary.

Most of his ministry was with the Evangelical Methodist Church and the Free Methodist Church. His credentials were recognized by the Washington Pacific District Church of the Nazarene as he was serving as Associate Pastor at the Fourth Plain Road Church of the Nazarene 2009 through 2012.

He and Marilyn were married in 1961 and are blessed to have two grown daughters, Melody Lynn Thum of Vancouver, WA and Kathleen Joy Troyer of Buckeye, AZ. They also have 5 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren. Vic and Marilyn moved here to be near Marilyn's mother, Evelyn Moore, in September, 2012 and became members of the Sun City Church at that time. Vic's Hobbies include playing piano and doing moderate physical exercise several times a week. He is grateful to have been graciously received by our local church family.
